4. After the briefing, Emily Sheketoff, who was briefed on 30 July 1975 for SI, TK,  came into the room and asked how many compartments of information there were in CIA. I replied that "I did not know." She asked if there were 100. I said "I did not know." She asked if there were less than 70, I responded by asking her if she was working on CIA material, when she said yes, I suggested that she get in touch with her contact at CIA. She advised that she had asked him
